Dear Friend/Partner:

Servicios Latinos de Burlington County Inc.-AKA SELBUC – Multicultural Social Services warmly invites you to participate in our Annual Hispanic Heritage Celebration 2026 and consider becoming a valued sponsor for this special community event taking place on September 19, 2026.

This unique celebration, the only one of its kind in Burlington County, brings together Latino and non-Latino families of all ages to enjoy cultural diversity through music, food, dance, entertainment, and family activities. Attendees will also have access to free health screenings, community resources, social service information, and much more.

Servicios Latinos de Burlington County Inc. is a nonprofit 501(c) (3) organization serving the community for 26 years by helping individuals and families access education, prevention of domestic violence, assistance with employment, housing, healthcare, translation services, and other essential services. Our programs are sustained through grants, donations, fundraising events, and community support.
